

March 2, 1951

March 5, 1951

Willowbrook Wards
Get 15 Volunteers

(Advance Albany Bureau)

ALBANY — Bids will be received Wednesday by the State Department of Public Works for interior painting in buildings 3, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22 and 23 at the Willowbrook State School, Staten Island, it was announced today.

LEND A HAND to the youngsters at Willowbrook State School. They're giving a play for parents soon, and need costumes for the show, which will depict scenes from 1900 to the present. Particularly sought are old-fashioned clothes, striped tee shirts, overalls and derbies. Scout the attic, please, and send the things along to John Siano, recreation director.

March 2, 1951

April, 1951

Willowbrook Painting
Bids Will Be Taken

Fifteen women volunteers attended at lecture yesterday afternoon at Willowbrook State School given by Dr. Martin Lazar, assistant director, and Miss Florence Goodfield, chief nurse. The women will serve in the recreational and occupational therapy wards.

The history of the mentally deficient and purpose of the school and its program were outlined by the speakers. Another lecture of the three-lecture series will be held next Friday at 1:30 P. M. Mrs. George Zahn is group chairman.

Group Visits Willowbrook

A delegation from the Association for the Care of Mentally Retarded Children yesterday visited Willowbrook State School and made a tour through the building occupied by babies.

The visitors were told of the development, care and progress of the children and were shown a film outlining their training.

The reception was held by volunteers of the school, headed by Mrs. George Zahn, who was assisted by Mrs. Saul Taub, Mrs. Augustus Pynn, Mrs. Ralph Siebert, Mrs. Alfred Rasmussen and Miss Jane Rosenberg. Miss Elizabeth Smith, senior social worker of the school, poured.