Student Nurses Scheduled For Tour of Willowbrook

Twenty-seven student nurses and four instructors from the Central Islip (L. I.) State Hospital will tour Willowbrook State School next Thursday as part of a field trip program inaugurated within the Department of Mental Hygiene, Dr. Harold H. Berman, Willowbrook director, said today.

The program is designed to acquaint student nurses with the facilities, programs and objectives of the department.

The Central Islip group will arrive in the morning and remain at Willowbrook throughout the day.

They will hear talks by Mrs. Ethel Smith, instructor in nursing; Miss Elizabeth Smith, senior social worker; Mrs. Grace Ellen Stiles, institution teacher; Dr. Kathryn E. Gasorek, clinical psychologist, and Dr. Martin Lazar, assistant clinical director.

Intermediate Troop Rehearses Musical

Members of Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 5-10 last night discussed a musical performance which they are to give at a party sometime next month for children of the Willowbrook State School.

The party is to be sponsored by Staten Island Section, National Council of Jewish Women.

Meeting in the Jewish Community Center, the Scouts discussed a trip they are scheduled to make today to Hayden Planetarium and the Museum of Natural History, Manhattan.

Instruction in first aid will be given next Thursday. Mrs. Milton S. Klaw, leader, is assisted by Mrs. Molly Mehlworn.
