

A carnival on wheels comes to the Willowbrook State School as the institution observes its annual carnival day. The event was sponsored by the Benevolent Association for Retarded Children.

July 30, 1952

Honored at the carnival was Jerry Vogel, Manhattan music publisher who has been a contributor to the school.

Members of the Benevolent Society who were in charge of refreshments were Mrs. Shirley Epstein, Mrs. Florence Redler, Mrs. Corrinne Goodman, Miss Susan Goodman, Mrs. Bessie Davis, Mrs. Ann Tagliaferro, Mrs. Ann Heisler and Mrs. Carmela Marino. Also assisting with arrangements were Mrs. Edna Rasmussen and Mrs. Frieda Wiskind, volunteer workers.

Carnival Day Observed at Willowbrook

Pony rides, hay rides and a merry-go-round featured a Jerry Vogel Carnival Day yesterday for patients at Willowbrook State School on the baseball field of the institution.

Approximately 800 children were present at the event, which was sponsored by the Benevolent Society for Retarded Children. Selections were played by the school, under the direction of Vincent Lombardi, bandmaster. Kenneth Clark, recreation instructor, was in charge of the program.

Carnival Day Planned At Willowbrook School

Pony cart rides, dog acts, selections by the Willowbrook State School band and other attractions will feature Jerry Vogel Carnival Day for children of the school on the facility's grounds tomorrow from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M., Willowbrook officials said today.

The annual event is sponsored by the Benevolent Association for Retarded Children.