

JUNE 26, 1953

Willowbrook Kiddies To Present Operetta

Children of Willowbrook State School will present an operetta for their parents Sunday at 4 P.M. in the school auditorium.

Written and directed by their music teacher, Vincent Lombardi, the operetta is entitled "Imagination Lane." The story of how Raveu a loyal subject of King Ralli-Ben-Gou, recovers the king's stolen ruby is told in music and dancing.

The show is sponsored by the Benevolent Society for Retarded Children, an organization of parents of children at Willowbrook.

S.I. Advance
July 3, 1953

Folks In Review

Folks who saw the operetta produced recently by the youngsters at Willowbrook State School have only highest praise for Vincent Lombardi, music director, who wrote and directed the show. "Marvelous for both audience and cast," I'm told.