

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 27, 1954

College Makes Appointment To Faculty

MRS. G. E. STILES

A New Brighton woman, Mrs. Grace Ellen Stiles, now working toward her doctorate in connection with safety education, this week joined the faculty of Pennsylvania State Teachers' College in Millersville.

Her specific study deals with mental health aspects of accidents in children of elementary school age and it is being sponsored by the Center for Safety Education, of which Dr. Alice V. Keliher is chairman.

Mrs. Stiles, who has taught in elementary schools and in the academic department of Willowbrook State School, also served as executive clerk of the Committee on the Library, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.

The educator holds the bachelor of education degree from Southern Illinois University in Carbondale and the master of arts degree from New York University, where she is a candidate for the doctorate. She also studied public administration at the American University in Washington, D. C.

Among her professional affiliations are the New York City Branch, American Association of University Women; National Education Association; American Association on Mental Deficiency; and Beta Pi Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi Sorority at New York University.

She and her husband, Russell W. Stiles, have been living at 347 Westervelt avenue, New Brighton. Their son, Phillip J. Stiles, 9, a former student in Staten Island Academy, is now visiting relatives in California. Mrs. Stiles' older son, Lt. William Keller Cooper, is expected home shortly from Korea.