

Willowbrook Altar Guild Lists Dinner

Mrs. Florence Francis, president, and her staff of officers will be installed formally at the first annual dinner of the Protestant Altar Guild of Willowbrook State School tonight at 8 in the Villa Restaurant, Stapleton.

The purpose of the organization is to assist the school's Protestant chaplain in servicing needs of patients and to further the chaplain's program.

* * *

THE REV. DR. J. Murdock Palmer, who holds that post, will install the officers. Invocation will be given by the Rev. Alexander Frier, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, Rosebank.

Guests will be greeted by Dr. Harold Berman, director of the school. Singers on the program will be Tim O'Malley, tenor of TV and radio, and Lowman Hatfield. Benediction will be given by Rabbi Philip Goldberg, Jewish chaplain of the school.

JUBILEE CEREMONY—Mrs. Florence Francis, president of the Protestant Altar Guild of Willowbrook State School, slices cake commemorating the first anniversary of the guild in the Villa Restaurant, Stapleton. Left to right are Mrs. Gertrude Yuill, treasurer; Mrs. Francis; Mrs. Lillian Palmer, wife of the school's Protestant chaplain, and Mrs. Katherine Berman, wife of the school director.