Settling an Old Score

Joseph Lombardi, director (right, holding music), discusses tunes to be played today by members of the Willowbrook State School Boys Band of Staten Island. The youngsters will be guests of the Hamid-Morton three-ring circus which opens today for a two-week stand at Ebbets Field. Willowbrook Band will play tunes outside the field before the circus opens and then head the march into the arena.

State School Choir Sings In Church

The Protestant choir of Willowbrook State School sang a selection of songs last night in First Baptist Church, New Brighton.

A presentation of Bibles to the members for memorizing of certain of the Scriptures was conducted by Miss Marie Olsen, a volunteer teacher of the group.

The Rev. Dr. J. Murdock Palmer, Protestant chaplain at Willowbrook, gave the service. Mrs. Albert Solburg, organist, supervised the presentations by the choir.
