Members of the jazz band of the Willowbrook State School for retarded children on Staten Island rehearse with their musical director, Vinnie Lombardi. The boys will blow some mean tunes, along with the full band, at the Waldorf-Astoria Nov. 8, when the Benevolent Society for Retarded Children holds its annual banquet to raise money for research. Band is the pet project of the school's noted psychiatrist-director, Dr. Harold H. Berman.

Pythian Sisters

Fete Patients

Five hundred patients at Willowbrook State School received presents and refreshments yesterday at a Chanukah party sponsored by Stella M. Gootenberg Temple, Pythian Sisters.

Men received gifts of cigarettes and the women were given jewelry. Books and toys were distributed to the children. A Chanukah playlet was performed by the children.

Mrs. Lillian Lipsitz and Mrs. Rose Klein were co-chairmen.
