Jewish Women Sponsor Party

Some 300 children at Willowbrook State School were feted Saturday at a Purim party sponsored by Staten Island Section, National Council of Jewish Women, with Mrs. Ruben Gelman as chairman.

The party followed a Purim service conducted by Rabbi Philip Goldberg, Jewish chaplain at the school.

Mrs. David Klawsky will be in charge of a Purim party this afternoon at 2 p. m. for patients at Sea View Hospital. A purim party will be given Thursday afternoon for residents of Farm Colony. Mrs. Belle Weinman will be in charge of this affair.

6 Protestant Pastors Assist At State School Confirmation

Approximately 700 persons attended Protestant confirmation exercises yesterday for a class of 32 students of Willowbrook State School.

The program began at 3 p.m. at the school with a procession of the confirmands and clergy, followed by the 40-voice girls choir of the school.

The Rev. Dr. J. Murdock Palmer, Protestant chaplain at the school, presented the certificates of confirmation to the 16 boys and 16 girls.

The presentation of white testaments and white Bibles for boys were made respectively by the Rev. Fred Hubach, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church, West Brighton, and Mrs. Florence Francis, president of the Willowbrook Altar Guild.

THE REV. James Leonard, pastor of Salem Evangelical Free Church, West Brighton, presented white testaments to the girls. Others who took part in the exercises included the Rev.

Gerald J. Huenink, pastor of Cal-Asbury Methodist Church, New Springville; the Rev. Edward J. Tim O'Malley offered tenor solos. A reception followed the exercises. The program was under the supervision of Dr. Har- R. Lien, pastor of Zion Lutheran Church, Port Richmond, and the old H. Berman, director of the Rev. John Jaqueth, pastor of school.
