

treatment of the sick. This state institution cares for close to 6,000 mentally retarded patients

In rehabilitation center mentally retarded children who suffer from physical defects are taught how to walk and play. It may take months, even years to accomplish this gain.