

Students' Works On Sale for Week

Embroidery, ceramic, rugs and woodwork produced by students at Willowbrook State School will be offered at the school for a week, starting today. The sale will be held in Building 5 from 10 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. daily through Friday. There will be no sale on Saturday, but it will be resumed Sunday. Proceeds will be used to purchase equipment for the occupational therapy department.

Willowbrook Is Honored

Sutter Temple 184, Pythian Sisters, has made a formal presentation of a stereo hi-fi set, records and six high chairs, to the Willowbrook School on Victory Blvd. The Pythian Sisters, a national organization, has set up the Eva Lomm Memorial Fund for such purposes. Willowbrook is a school for mentally and emotionally disturbed children.
