

Hurt in S.I. Cave-in

(NEWS foto by Jim Romano)
Harry Brickle is taken on stretcher to hospital.

Harry Brickle, 30, of 1159 E. 82d St., Brooklyn, foreman for the Castle Plumbing Corp. of Jamaica, Queens, escaped serious injury yesterday when he was buried to the neck in a ditch that collapsed as he was working on a gas pipe at the Willowbrook State School, Victory Blvd., Willowbrook, S. I. Brickle was rescued by Anthony Truevelli, a laborer at the hospital, and taken to St. Vincent's Hospital.

STATEN ISLAND ADVANCE, TUESDAY, APRIL 4, 1967

Counselor Outlines Work of Center

The Parents - Teachers - Friends Association of Eltingville Lutheran School, meeting last night in the school auditorium, heard Mrs. Gerd Paul, counselor at the START Center for Girls, Willowbrook, discuss and show a film on the center's functions and activities.

The girls, she explained, work as volunteers at Willowbrook State School.

Mrs. John Emigholz is chairman of a plant sale May 11 in the school.

At the next meeting in June, members will elect officers.