Diplomas Given At State School

Diplomas were presented to 37 youngsters by James E. Hannon, a member of the Board of Visitors of Willowbrook School, yesterday at graduation ceremonies at the state institution.

C. Edward Gildeon, another board member, was the principal speaker.

The class was presented by Dr. Jack Hammond, director at Willowbrook, and awards were distributed by Max Schwimmer and Mrs. Estelle Gordon of the Benevolent Society for Retarded Children.
