

Nurse diplomas awarded to 46

Dr. Lillian V. Salsman, a mental hygiene nursing consultant, today addressed 46 graduates of the School for Practical Nursing at Willowbrook State School. Fourteen of the graduates are Staten Islanders.

Rabbi Philip Goldberg, chaplain, gave the invocation, and diplomas were handed out by Miss Frances M. Ryan, principal.

Awards were presented by Miss Mary A. Kelly, chief of nursing services and training.

A reception for graduates and guests followed.

STATEN ISLAND ADVANCE, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1968

Award winners all

Six Staten Island women, recipients of awards at graduation exercises of the School for Practical Nursing at Willowbrook State School, chat with the only non-Island award winner in the 46-member class, Robert Pawson of Long Island. Standing, left to right, are Miss Shirley McDaniel, Miss Maureen Kidney, Mrs. Charles Sanacore and Mrs. Francis Callaghan. Seated are Mrs. Herbert VanName, left, and Mrs. Walter Zatwarnicki.

S.I. Advance Photo by Frank J. Johns