Retarded youth cited for poster

A 16-year-old Willowbrook State School resident has been cited in a statewide art contest for the retarded, sponsored by the New York State Association for Retarded Children.

Bruce Shaw received honorable mention for a snowman poster.

The contest was open to retarded youngsters and adults, living in the community or in state residential centers. The state contest is part of a nationwide effort to select art by retarded artists for Christmas cards, which are sold by local units of the National Association for Retarded Children.
