

A memorial tribute

Gathered around the silver crown dedicated yesterday in the synagogue of Willowbrook State School to the memory of Mrs. Milton Klaw by the National Council of Jewish Women, Staten Island section, are, from left, Mrs. Frank Radin, Mrs. Isidore Goldman, Rabbi Philip Goldberg, Dr. Jack Hammond and Mrs. Jack Rubin. For over 20 years, Mrs. Klaw, who lived in Brighton Heights, until her death last May, was chairman of the council's Willowbrook State School project, which arranged parties for children three times a year following the Jewish holy day services.
