

Yule concert at Willowbrook

The Willowbrook Glee Club and Band will conduct a Christmas concert featuring carols and popular songs Friday at 8 p.m. in the Building 3 auditorium at Willowbrook State School. The public is invited; admission is free.

The glee club, directed by Al Lambert and Miss Beth Anderson, assisted by Miss Louise Cognata, has made appearances at the Waldorf-Astoria and New York Hilton Hotels in Manhattan and at the Throgs Neck-Sound View Mental Health Center in the Bronx.

The group consists of 50 boys and girls singing in two and three-part harmony. Soloists also are featured.

The concert also will include a special appearance by the Willowbrook Band, a 20-piece ensemble of reeds, brass, percussion and string instruments, directed by Joseph Lombardi.

One of the planned highlights of the concert will be a medley of Burt Bacharach compositions.
