

50 senior citizens to be guests of medical society auxiliary

Fifty senior citizens, representing several groups on the Island, will be the guests of the Women's Auxiliary to the Richmond County Medical Society at its meeting Tuesday at 12:30 p.m. in Building 61 of Willowbrook State School. The visitors will display their own handicrafts and then will be served luncheon by the hostess group. They will be greeted by Mrs. Vincent Sottile, auxiliary president.

A Brooklyn Union Gas Co. film, "The Secret Favored World of Staten Island," will be shown afterwards.

Reports will be given on the 35th annual convention of the New York State Medical Society auxiliary in the Hotel Americana, Manhattan, attended by Mrs. Sottile and several delegates.

Island women installed as state officers were Mrs. Raymond Donovan of Great Kills, treasurer; Mrs. Albert Patrick of Dongan Hills, councilor of District No. 1; and Mrs. Walter Heldmann of Ward Hill, chairman of councilors to the state auxiliary.
