

Robbery attempt at school fails

Two would-be robbers, who allegedly tried to holdup the Willowbrook State School cashier's office yesterday, panicked and ran when the woman cashier screamed for help, police said.

Police say one of the young men asked Lila Carlson, of 1 Crystal Ave., Port Richmond, for change while the other slipped a note under her teller's window and pulled a gun.

When Miss Carlson screamed, the robbers panicked and ran out the door. The incident happened around 8:30 a.m. in Building No. 1 at the state school.
