

Just a few of the gifts collected for Willowbrook State School children by the South Shore Garden Club are displayed by, left to right, Mrs. Kenneth Fraser, Mrs. Henry Kazmirowski, Mrs. Otto Hauber, club president, and Mrs. C.A.P. van Stolk, district director for the Federated Garden Clubs.

S.I. Advance Photo by Frank J. Johns

Children at Willowbrook to 'reap' South Shore Garden Club yule gifts

A display and judging of decoratively wrapped gifts was featured yesterday at the annual Christmas luncheon of the South Shore Garden Club in the Riviera Chateau, Oakwood.

Awards were presented by Mrs. C.A.P. van Stolk, director of District 1, Federated Garden Clubs of New York State, to Mrs. Kenneth Fraser, first place; Mrs. Otto Hauber, second place, and Mrs. Thomas Lavin, third place.

All gifts will be distributed to children in Building 12 at Willowbrook as part of the club's year-round service project. Awards for Christmas candles made by members and used as luncheon table centerpieces were presented by Mrs. van Stolk to Mrs. Fraser, first place; Mrs. Lavin, second place, and Mrs. Guy Walle, third place. Members joined in a grab bag exchange of gifts and Christmas carols were sung by Mrs. Carl Thompson accompanied by Mrs. Robert Jennings on piano. Afternoon chairmen were Mrs. Jennings and Mrs. Frank Munkasey.

The next meeting will be Jan. 18.