

Mrs. Margaret Uske, another SERVE member, with a Willowbrook patient she has been working with on visits.

"companion" telephone calls to home-bound invalids and work in gift shops.

In the last two years, the sponsoring Community Service Society has helped 42 communities in 21 counties in New York State organize such programs. The Federal Government has modeled its Retired Senior Volunteer Program after SERVE, and officials say that by this summer at least one chapter of the national project will be operating in all 50 states.

February 12, 1972
New York Times
Page 2 of 2 pages