

Dr. Miodrag Ristic assumes his official posture, as new director of Willowbrook State School.

S.I. Advance Photo by Barry J. Schwartz

Willowbrook post becomes official

Dr. Miodrag Ristic officially director of the Cambridge, Mass., State School.

He attended medical school in Yugoslavia and was a resident of Severalls Hospital, Colchester, England. He is married and the father of two daughters.

Dr. Ristic, a 34-year-old Yugoslavian psychiatrist, had served as acting director of the institution for the mentally retarded since July. He replaced Dr. Jack Hammond, who had been named director of the Rome State School.

Serving as deputy director for clinical services at Willowbrook from 1969 until last July, Dr. Ristic had been medical