

A boutique at Willowbrook State School, featuring new clothing to be selected by the patients themselves, is a cooperative venture by groups interested in helping the mentally retarded, including, left to right, Robert Hayes of the State Mental Hygiene Department; Dr. Miodrag Ristic, school director; Mrs. Terry Moerman, a Willowbrook employe who will help staff the shop, and Irwin Bier of the Benevolent Society for Retarded Children.

Gerty Crossman found a new jacket; and Nancy Bier chose a pretty party dress on their first visit to the boutique in Building 18. Volunteers helping them are Mrs. Edward Tortora, left, and Mrs. Anthony DeGenaro. The shop is open daily from 7 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. but not to the public.
