

Good news:
$300 check
for glider

Touched by the article in the Advance, "Too Few Rides, Too Many Tears," Mrs. Miriam J. Petersen of Bay Terrace said she sent a check for $300 to attorney Guy Molinari of New Dorp Plaza, for the purchase of a new glider at the Willowbrook State School where her daughter, Valerie, has been since May 1962.

"Therefore," Mrs. Petersen said, "I am well aware not only of a dedicated and wonderful staff, but also of the many inadequacies that Willowbrook faces."

Referring to the $300 check, Mrs. Petersen said "this small contribution was made possible through my many friends and fellow-workers at the Arthur Kill Rehabilitation Center . . ."

Mrs. Peterson concluded her letter saying, "God bless you, Mrs. Mileo and the Staten Island Advance."

What is your good news? Send it to:

Good News Editor
Staten Island Advance
950 Fingerboard Rd.
Staten Island, N.Y. 10305