$10,000 bail set

in girl attack

Bail of $10,000 was set yesterday in Stapleton Criminal Court for a 20-year-old man who allegedly raped a 13-year-old Willowbrook State School girl.

According to police, Willie Summers, a former inmate of the institution, attacked the girl Wednesday afternoon in a wooded area on the school grounds. He was arrested by Detective Vincent Smith and charged with rape, sexual abuse, endangering the welfare of a minor, criminal trespassing and resisting arrest for allegedly assaulting four school guards.

The case was adjourned to May 31.
