

Disney characters entertain the kids at Willowbrook

A pretty performer from the Disney on Parade show dances with a patient at Willowbrook State School. The group will perform for the residents of five state schools in the New York City area this week.

PAGE 1 OF 2 PAGES

Mickey and Minnie Mouse greet the children before the show. The program is being presented by Hospital Audiences Inc., a nonprofit agency which for the past four years has been mobilizing and channeling the cultural resources of communities to benefit the institutionalized and disadvantaged.

Mickey Mouse and other Disney characters entertain the children with song and dance routines from the Disney on Parade show, which will open in Madison Square Garden July 31. U.S.I. Advance Photos by Robert Parsons