

Outing set for 250 from state school

Nearly 250 children from Willowbrook State School will celebrate the second annual "Fun, Love and Peace Day" June 21 at Lido Beach, Long Beach, L.I., with residents of Odyssey House drug rehabilitation centers and Grace Plaza Nursing Home in Great Neck, L.I.

There will be approximately 1,500 people, including 300 volunteers from the metropolitan area, involved in the event, which will present live entertainment by the children's choir of Odyssey House, the Nassau County Senior Citizen's Band, jazz guitarist Larry Coryell, and rock groups.

Food, refreshments, toys and prizes will be provided by Long Island merchants.
