

Willowbrook resident found dead

Police are investigating the death of an 18-year-old Willowbrook Developmental Center resident after the youth was found dead last Friday.

Police said that Jaime Rivera suffered cuts and bruises on the head and face. His body was taken to the City Morgue, Manhattan, about 11 p.m. Friday.

The incident was referred to detectives yesterday by the medical examiner's office.

Detectives Al Culter and Charles Ackerman are investigating.
