

Police probing burning of youth

Detectives are investigating an incident involving a 16-year-old resident of Willowbrook Developmental Center who was burned yesterday.

The youth, Michael Edwards, is listed in satisfactory condition in the U.S. Public Health Hospital, Clifton, after he received burns on his buttocks.

Police said that the youth was found by an attendant, Isabelle Peake about 5:30 a.m., in Building 25 and doctors were notified.

The boy was transferred to the U.S. Public Health Hospital after he was treated at the center.

Detective John Degnan is in charge of the investigation.
