

Good news: Mom gets needed help

It is not often that news about Willowbrook Developmental Center falls in the "good" category, but just such an item has been provided by Mrs. Janet Corcillo of Travis, who is delighted with one of the services in which the state institution plays a role.

It is a recent program from Willowbrook, implemented by Homemakers Home and Health Care Services of Stapleton. Mrs. Corcillo writes that she is receiving care for her daughter three times a week.

"For the first time in years I am able to go out and not worry about the care of my daughter," she continues. "I can even plan projects around the house which can be finished without numerous interruptions to feed or change or check on my girl.

"Homemakers and Willowbrook, as represented by Mrs. Emily Petrovato and Mrs. Lynn Saberg, have done a fine job of matching the helper to the child.

"My homemaker is so kind and tender, thoughtful and gentle with my daughter, and efficient as well.

"I have heard reports just as glowing from others who are receiving this help."
