New member named to Willowbrook board

William C. LaMorte of 272 York Ave., New Brighton, has been appointed to the board of visitors of Willowbrook Developmental Center, Gov. Carey announced yesterday.

LaMorte, 59, is president of LaMorte's Vending Co. He is a former member of Community Board 2 and is now a member of the Staten Island Chamber of Commerce. He is on the board of trustees for the Exceptional Children's Club, past president of the North Shore Kiwanis Club and executive director of the Camelot Drug Prevention Center.

LaMorte has been named for a term ending in December 1978. Each developmental and psychiatric center has a board of visitors whose role is to investigate conditions at the state facilities. The position is unsalaried. LaMorte's appointment must be confirmed by the Legislature.
