

STATEN ISLAND ADVANCE, Friday, October 14, 1977

---

Visitor attacked at Willowbrook

A 32-year-old New Jersey man, who told police he was beaten yesterday afternoon in the Willowbrook Developmental Center, was listed in satisfactory condition last night in St. Vincent's Medical Center.

Jack Harrington of Rutherford said a man about 5 feet 10 inches tall with a mustache attacked him about 5:15 p.m. with a pipe in a hallway in Building 60 and continued the beating in a parking lot, according to police. Harrington was taken to the hospital with head and leg injuries.

Police gave no reason for the attack or why Harrington was at the center.