

Club offers $500 for information in office arson

The Exceptional Children's Social Club announced last night it will offer a $500 reward to any person who offers information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the fire that damaged a proposed counseling and service office in Dongan Hills.

The Staten Island Developmental Center, Willowbrook is attempting to lease the office at 25 Dumont Ave. Fire Department officials have termed the blaze a suspected arson.

Meeting in the Holy Rosary R.C. Church hall, South Beach, the group also made plans for its annual bowling awards dinner May 27 at 7 p.m. in Labetti VFW hall, Rosebank.

The group will also attend a special mass Saturday at 9 a.m. in the Holy Rosary R.C. Church for its ailing president, Edward Baggs. The next meeting will be June 21.
