

similar hospitals in New York State, the hospital has not initiated a specific program that is specifically addressed to the problem facing immigrant workers, especially Asian workers...

The Hospital became well-known to the Korean community owing to a tragic event in which a Korean nurse, Shin Ae Lee, was found murdered at the Hospital compounds in July of 1978.

In addition, the Hospital has, since 1970, provided jobs to several hundred Korean immigrants; among them were ex-Korean National Assemblymen, retired generals, ministers, etc...
