

Special Olympics sets disco party

The Staten Island Special Olympics Committee, meeting yesterday in the Staten Island Developmental Center, Willowbrook, discussed plans for a Valentine's Day disco party Feb. 21 at 8 p.m. in Tut's, Concord. Tickets are $5 per person and are available in advance from Doris Grell of Cheves Ave., Westerleigh.

Plans were also made for a roller disco party March 27 in Skate Odyssey, South Beach. Attending the 10th anniversary dinner March 26 in the Waldorf Astoria Hotel, Manhattan, was discussed.

The committee accepted a check for $1,150 from Richard Potter, a teacher at Moore Catholic High School, Graniteville, from the proceeds of a school marathon he organized with students.

The next meeting will be March 5.
