Special Olympics set for weekend

A citywide Special Olympics will take place this weekend on the grounds of the Staten Island Developmental Center, Willowbrook.

For the first time, the sports event for the handicapped will span three days, tomorrow through Sunday. Sleeping facilities will be provided by the developmental center, according to games coordinator Richard Salinardi.

Registration will take place tomorrow, from 4 p.m. until 7 p.m. in Building 1 of the developmental center, 2700 Victory Blvd.
