

STATEN ISLAND ADVANCE, Tuesday February 1, 1983

Two members of the Board of Visitors to the Staten Island Developmental Center have retired at the end of their terms.

Jerome Isaacs and Dante Ferrari were cited by the board's president, Matteo Lumetta, speaking in behalf of Dr. Ella A. Curry, director of the Center, for the "invaluable contribution of time and supportive efforts" of both men to enhance the quality of life for the clients at the facility.

Isaacs and Ferrari were cited for their contributions to the Center's programs and services.
