

STATEN ISLAND ADVANCE, Wednesday, June 13, 1984

PATIENT ABUSE

The Civil Service Employees Association is fighting legislation that would mandate workers found guilty of abusing a patient to be suspended the first time and dismissed the second time.

Assemblywoman Elizabeth A. Connelly, D-West Brighton, is sponsoring the bill, which was stayed from consideration for at least a day, she said, after union officials made contact with the Assembly leadership.