

S. J. Adrance
6/15/54

Advisory group picks president

Almeda Sabido was elected president of the Staten Island Committee on Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services, it was announced yesterday. Her term of office will begin Sunday.

The committee advises the City Mental Health, Mental Retardations and Alcoholism Services Department on the needs of Staten Island youngsters.

Mrs. Sabido, who is the director of the Staten Island Children's Community Health Society, has served that organization for 25 years.