

Police continue search for retarded woman

Police are continuing their search for a 28-year-old mentally retarded New Brighton woman who has been missing since March 22.

Donna Penny was last seen at her foster mother's home on Lafayette Avenue in New Brighton.

She was supposed to attend a function on Bay Street in St. George at about 8 a.m. that morning, but never arrived.

Miss Penny is described as being about 5 feet 5 inches tall, with dark brown hair, brown eyes and a fair complexion. She was wearing a three-quarter-length beige cotton coat, blue jeans, white sneakers, a white sweater and barrettes in her hair when she disappeared.

Anyone with information on Miss Penny's whereabouts is asked to call Detective Louis Russo of the Crimes Against Property Squad at 390-8153, or the Staten Island Developmental Center.
