

Large wards, which formerly had dozens of beds side by side, are now divided by partitions to separate sleeping areas into mini bedrooms.