

Albany—

* * *

On the 10th anniversary of the Willowbrook consent decree last Tuesday, former Gov. Hugh L. Carey met with officials of the Cuomo administration and former state officials for a special panel discussion here, convened by the Rockefeller Institute of Government and the state Office of Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities.

"People who were beyond help are now helping themselves," Carey was quoted as saying.