

Man beaten, robbed

Two people were arrested for beating and robbing a 60-year-old New Brighton man in St. George early this morning.

Kenneth Brant told police he was walking along Bay Street at Richmond Terrace at 2 a.m. when a man and a woman approached him and demanded money. The man pulled out a handgun and took $20 from Brant's coat, and both robbers punched Brant in the face and head.

Police were called, and found the pair a short time later a few blocks away. They arrested Gordon Epps, 33, of the 300 block of St. Mark's Place, St. George, and Peggy Faulkner, 26, of the 100 block of Jersey Street, New Brighton.
