

Franklin, 47, a one-time Willowbrook resident, says the family he lives with "treat me like my real mother and father that I don't have."

James, 26, says that because of his Family Care providers, he doesn't have to be lonely any more.