

There will be a public hearing Thursday sponsored by the health committee at 7:30 p.m. A presentation from the Staten Island Developmental Disabilities Services Office regarding the establishment of a group home for seven mildly to moderately retarded adults on Bryant Avenue in New Dorp will take place.