Scope & Content Note

This collection includes photographic prints, slides, contact sheets and negatives from the files of the Office of Publications. The negatives were stored separately, and there is some duplication between the print and negative collections. The negative collection is much larger than the print collection, as not all negatives were printed and many of the print files consist solely of contact sheets. However, many images, especially early images, are only available in a print format.

Most images are black & white, but there are some color prints and slides (but few color negatives) in the collection. The files include publicity shots, portraits and event photographs. There are also images of staff and students that were collected for use in various college catalogs, viewbooks and other publications.

Arrangement

The Office Publications Photographs are divided into two series:

PHOTOGRAPHS & CONTACT SHEETS

This series is arranged alphabetically by subject. Three miscellaneous files are filed last.

Series 2: Negatives, c. 1987-1997. Approximately 700 envelopes.

This series is arranged numerically by job number. A few sets of negatives that were not originally included in the job number filing system have been filed last.

This series consists of negatives. The first three boxes contain mostly 35-mm film negatives, although they include some 2¼” medium-format negatives. Box 4 contains 3x4” and 6½x9½” negatives. Most of the images are from events, but the series also contains images of people, the Willowbrook campus and images created for use in publications.

The negatives are stored in envelopes labeled by job number, but about two thirds of the envelopes include additional subject information on the label. Additional information is most often lacking on the earliest negatives. Most envelopes are undated, but the order of the job numbers is roughly chronological.
