Title: Immigrant Reflections: From Ellis Island to Staten Island

Creator: John Harlan Warren

Dates: 2008

Extent: .25 linear feet.

Abstract: In conjunction with the National Park Service, Save Ellis Island, Statue of Liberty National Monument, and Ellis Island, juniors from the College of Staten Island High School for International Studies conducted interviews with seven immigrants who live on Staten Island. The interviews were conducted as part of a year-long project titled Immigrant Reflections: From Ellis Island to Staten Island which was conceived by the National Parks of New York Harbor Education Center, located at Fort Wadsworth on Staten Island.
