'93

My Fellow Graduates,

I sincerely hope that my feeble efforts to produce an overview of the college experience gives at least some of you a lasting memory of your time spent at C. S. I.

The 1993 Dolphin is not as much a Yearbook as it is a simple momento of the years spent here at the college. I know that my years here at C. S. I. will be ones that I will never forget.

As you and your families browse through the images on these pages I expect that some sense of delight and satisfaction will be gotten by you, even if it is just the relief of knowing that, you are moving on to the real world!!

My heartfelt congratulations to you all! Good luck and Merry Christmas!

Ed.

A Very Special Thanks To The People That Helped To Put This Thing Together.

BOB ALESSI - For his excellent ideas and lifesaving computer expertise.

BELINDA DIAMOND - For her layout, photography, and shuttling back and forth to the printer with me .

GLORIA COX, LINDA GRIFFIN & CORINNE LAMBERT- For their speedy paste-up and putting up with me.

JOHN FLAHERTY - For film development and printing.

FRANK SCHWEIZER - For his moral support.

( All photographs printed in this Yearbook were found in the files that were here.
If you took one of them and did not receive credit THANK YOU !!)

Dear Graduates; Class of '93

Congratulations ! I know the hard work and dedication required to successfully reach this plateau. I would also like to congratulate your families who have supported you through these years.

As a college graduate you embark on the next phase of your lives, be it career, further education or other endeavor, with the solid foundation afforded by your experiences at College of Staten Island.

Again Congratulations ! good luck, success and best wishes in everything you do now and all the days of your lives.

Sincerely
Cliff Peterson
President Student Gov't

P.S. Have Fun! Enjoy Life!

PRESIDENT BILL CLINTON INAUGURATED

The air filled with cheers as William Jefferson Clinton was sworn into office as the 42nd president of the United States on January 20, 1993.

AIDS

A grim new vision of the world AIDS epidemic predicts that more than 25 million people will have the disease by the end of the decade, and up to 120 million will be infected.

The study, released this summer by Harvard University researchers, goes far beyond projections from the World Health Organization. It envisions an explosive, disastrous spread of the disease, particularly in Asia.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

Presidential candidate Bill Clinton and his running mate, Senator Al Gore, held arms aloft and stood before a convention hall brimming with euphoria and confidence on July 17, 1992, in New York's Madison Square Garden. Exhilaration swept through the convention hall.

IRAQ

U.S. warplanes swept over southern Iraq on January 13, 1993, bombing selected military targets. The goal of the attack was to take out the radar and missile sites in southern Iraq that have threatened the planes patrolling the area.

SOMOLIA

Three months after the world woke up to one of the worst famines in history, food started to reach hundreds of thousands of Somalis. Estimates of the dead range from 100,000 to half a million, but no one knows just how many have perished in the Horn of Africa nation.

THE BREAK-UP OF YUGOSLAVIA

The territory of Yugoslavia for centuries was a battleground between the Austro-Hungarian and Ottoman empires.

In 1918, the Kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes was declared, and in 1929 it was renamed Yugoslavia. The new country was torn by demands for autonomy by Croatians who opposed Serbian domination.

HURRICANE ANDREW

Hurricane Andrew struck southern Florida on August 24, 1992, with wind gusting to 164 mph and a 12-foot tidal surge that flattened many homes, uprooted trees, flung boats into the streets and wrecked an entire Air Force base.

The hurricane continued on, carving its way through the plantation country of Louisiana, throwing tornadoes like darts at a 100-mile-wide target and pumping torrents of rain at storm-weary Louisianians.

HURRICANE INIKI

Hurricane Iniki dealt a direct blow to Kauai, one of the Hawaiian Islands, on September 11, 1992, with winds gusting to 160 mph and torrential rain. It destroyed buildings and damaged many others on the island of more than 50,000 people, one official said.

CALIFORNIA EARTHQUAKES

Two powerful earthquakes rocked Southern California on June 28, 1992, killing a child and injuring more than 300 people.

The first quake, which registered 7.4 on the Richter scale, radiated out from a remote stretch of the Mojave Desert and was felt as far as 600 miles away in Denver. Fires erupted, water systems ruptured and highways heaved. The most serious damage appeared to be in desert and mountain communities east of Los Angeles near the epicenters.

H. ROSS PEROT

In May, Ross Perot was a potential president. Now, he's likely no more than potential spoiler, but nonetheless a wild card who could reshuffle the deck.

The Perot Factor was reintroduced to presidential politics 11 weeks to the day after the Texas billionaire abandoned plans to run, saying he had concluded he could not win. Many analysts view his re-entry as a selfish attempt at redemption by a political novice who failed to realize what he was getting into months ago and now wants to heal a wounded ego.

MTV VIDEO MUSIC AWARDS

Van Halen and the Red Hot Chili Peppers swept the ninth annual MTV Video Music Awards on September 9, 1992 in Los Angeles, CA.

The Red Hot Chili Peppers won the awards for breakthrough video, viewers' choice and art direction. Lead singer Anthony Keidis (top left) displays the MTV Spaceman trophy backstage.

Model and MTV vee-jay Cindy Crawford (top middle) poses for a photographer outside the pavilion, stopping to greet her fans.

HAITIAN REFUGEES

Is it political persecution by the military or desperate poverty, as the Bush administration suggests, causing Haitians to flee their homeland and seek asylum in the United States?

Initially, the Bush administration accepted the refugees at the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and heard their request for asylum. About 27,000 of them were denied asylum and returned to Haiti.

COLUMBUS ANNIVERSARY

Escorted by more than 1,000 private boats, replicas of Christopher Columbus' ships arrived in the United States on February 15, 1992, as part of the 500th anniversary celebration of his voyage to the New World.

Miami, FL was the first stop in a 20-city U.S. tour where more than 5,000 people cheered from docks and waterfront roads as the wooden reproductions of the Nina (bottom left), Pinta (top) and Santa Maria (bottom right) sailed into its harbor.

BILL CLINTON PLAYS THE SAXOPHONE

Bill Clinton, sitting in with the band, turned out an impressive version of "Heartbreak Hotel" as Arsenio Hall gestured approvingly in the musical opening of "The Arsenio Hall Show" taping at Paramount Studios in June 1992. Hall said of the presidential hopeful's talent on the saxophone, "It's good to see a Democrat blowing something other than the election."

WORLD TRADE CENTER BOMBING

Shortly after noon on February 26, 1993, an explosion rocked the World Trade Center in New York (NY), leaving several dead and hundreds injured. The bomb is believed to have been carried in a rented yellow Ford van which was parked in the garage below the twin towers. Islamic fundamentalist Mohammed A. Salameh has been arrested but is thought to have acted with others.

This was the first terrorist act committed on U.S. soil.

THE NATION RECYCLES

More than 20 companies, including McDonald's Corp., Coca-Cola Co. and Sears, Roebuck and Co., launched a national campaign in September 1992 to encourage U.S. businesses to buy recycled goods.

Recycling has produced vast supplies of paper, glass and other reusable trash, but demand is still low.

The alliance will conduct programs around the country to show businesses how they can buy recycled goods and use them in daily operations. The effort will include a database that informs businesses where, for example, they might buy memo pads made of recycled paper.

1992 WORLD SERIES

There's a new flag flying over Canada — the World Series pennant.

The Toronto Blue Jays took baseball's championship outside the United States for the first time ever, beating the Atlanta Braves 4-3 in 11 innings in Game 6.

After surviving more ninth-inning magic from the Braves, the Blue Jays won it all — and lost their loser's label forever — when Dave Winfield's first World Series extra base hit scored two runs with two out.

1992 SUMMER OLYMPICS

An era of amateurism passed into an age of professionalism, and the Olympics were transformed forever, when professional athletes were allowed to compete in the 1992 Summer Olympics in Barcelona, Spain.

Countering the attacks of commercialism, coach Chuck Daly argued that the presence of pros could do nothing but enhance the event. "There's 183 countries and 3 billion people watching these games," Daly said. "And somewhere out there now is a 13-year-old who wants to be a Michael or a Magic, a Larry or a Patrick. That's the role of these games," he said. "That's what happens in all of these sports. It gives people a dream."

The United States emerged from its two-decade Olympic funk, finishing only four behind in the closest medals race since America won in 1964 in Tokyo. Now it stands poised to rule the sports world in Atlanta in 1996 after arguably its greatest Summer Games.

America's 108 medals surpassed by one the total in 1968 and trailed only the inflated totals of the Soviet-boycotted 1984 Los Angeles Games and the 1904 St. Louis Games, attended by just 12 nations.

Pictured here are the "Dream Team" (top left) during the first half of their semifinal game with Lithuania; U.S. volleyball player Bob Samuels (top right), celebrating victory against Canada; Shannon Miller (bottom right) performing her floor exercises; and Gail Devers (bottom left) racing to a win in the third heat of the second round 100 meter hurdles.

U.S. OPEN

It was a new, improved Stefan Edberg who walked off the court in September with his second straight U.S. Open title, the world's No. 1 ranking and $500,000. This Stefan Edberg kissed the net cord in his quarterfinal match, kicked a ball, smacked the net and threw a towel. This Stefan Edberg even hurled the net after Pete Sampras buried a backhand service return into the net on match point, then fled to the side of the court to embrace his wife of five months, Annette.

"I feel very good about myself at the moment. I am playing good tennis and I am fighting for my life out there, but I am coming through. I really earned it this year because I have worked very hard and I have had some unbelievably tough matches," Edberg said.

Top-seeded Monica Seles also won her second straight U.S. Open women's singles title in September, defeating No. 5 Arantxa Sanchez Vicario of Spain 6-3, 6-3. It was the 13th Grand Slam tournament Seles has played, and her seventh victory.

Seles, like Edberg, earned $500,000 for her second straight U.S. Open title and won her third Grand Slam tournament crown of 1992.

Against Sanchez Vicario, Seles ripped through the first five games in just 18 minutes and closed out the opening set in 42 minutes. She began the second set with a service break and held for a 2-0 lead.

Congratulations, Stefan and Monica!
